

Julie Felton

Julia's practice focuses on business law, real estate, and personal injury matters. Julia is dedicated to providing clients with thoughtful, results-driven representation and helping individuals, families, and business navigate complex legal challenges with confidence. Whether she is helping a victim after a serious car accident, guiding a businessowner through a complex dispute, or assisting clients with the purchase or sale of a property, Julia is committed to providing clear, compassionate, and results-driven representation. She takes pride in understanding each client's goals and tailoring legal strategies to achieve the best possible outcome.

Julia earned her Juris Doctor with honors from the University of Florida Levin College of Law in May 2025. During law school, Julia served as a managing editor of the Florida Law Review and worked as a research assistant and a legal writing teaching assistant. In law school, Julia also clerked with the Cascade County Attorney's Office in Great Falls, Montana, and with the Earthjustice Florida Regional Office. Prior to law school, Julia received her Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science, with minors in Soil & Water Science and Agricultural & Natural Resource Law, from the University of Florida.

A native Floridian, Julia relocated to Northern Colorado in 2025. She looks forward to building lasting relationships and serving clients throughout the local community and Colorado with professionalism, integrity, and care.
