Ryan Cordsen

Ryan's practice focuses on personal injury law and business law. Ryan is admitted to the U.S District Court, District of Colorado. He is an active member of the Larimer County Bar Association.

Ryan earned his law degree from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law in 2018. Ryan earned his undergraduate degree from Colorado State University where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in 2011. In addition, Ryan holds a masters degree in Finance from Colorado State University, which was obtained in 2012. Prior to attending law school Ryan worked as an accountant for several large private businesses located in Northern Colorado. Ryan has been in private practice since 2018. Ryan is a second-generation Fort Collins native and is dedicated to providing high level legal services to the clients in the community in which he was born and raised.

Ryan's personal injury practice focuses on severe injuries and accidents. Ryan helps his clients navigate through the unnecessary labyrinth and complexities employed by the insurance companies to stifle claims. Ryan has successfully obtained millions for his clients who were injured by no fault of their own. Whether it is a car accident, a slip and fall, or some other injury caused by a third-party, Ryan can get you the compensation you deserve.

Ryan's business practice focuses on helping businesses grow and thrive. Whether your business in its infancy or you have been in business for fifty years, Ryan can help you navigate all of the legal issues your business faces. Ryan's previous business experiences allow him to understand the long-term goals of his business clients and give them the advice they need to be as successful as possible.
